SPECIAL STATEMENTS.

ANNUAL REUNION.

Wednesday of Commencement week has been set apart for an Annual Reunion of the former students of Union University, West Tennessee College and the South-western Baptist University. This will next occur June 6th, 1888, when the Annual Address will be delivered by Maj. G. W. Martin, Martin, Tenn. A cordial welcome is extended to every one who has ever attended either of the above-mentioned institutions.

The reunion this year was most enjoyable. Rev. W. G. Inman delivered the opening address; Prof. H. C. Irby followed with an address of welcome, which was responded to by Hon. John M. Taylor, Lexington, Tenn. Afterwards earnest speeches were made by Col. Caleb Cooper, Bedford county, Tenn.; Judge L. P. Cooper, Memphis, Tenn.; Judge Hutton, Arkansas; Judge E. S. Hammond, Memphis; Dr. T. T. Eaton, Louisvil'e, Ky.; Hon. D. L. Murrell, Gen. A. W. Campbell, Jackson; Maj. G. W. Martin, Martin, Tenn., and others.

ALUMNI.

By special acts of the Board of Trustees and the Alumni Association, the Alumni of Union University and West Tennessee College have been made Alumni of the South-western Baptist University. All who have ever received honorary degrees from either of these institutions were also adopted as regular members of the Association. We call attention to the present organization of this body.

IMPROVEMENTS.

With special pleasure we announce that the liberality of the citizens of Jackson has enabled the Executive Committee to make some handsome additions to the main University building. Another story with handsome mansard roof and other repairs adds very much to the comfort of pupils and teachers, as well as to the appearance of the building.
Arrangements are being made with the celebrated house of A. H. Andrews & Co., of Chicago, to equip the University with the elegant furniture they make specially for colleges. Our friends may rest assured that the officers and teachers of the S. W. B. U. will never tire in their work of developing this institution founded for the culture of Christian manhood and for the promulgation of the true principles of life throughout all the land.

Not sectarian, but "Christian Education" is the motto.

LIBRARY.

The University and Society Libraries are in a growing condition; still donations will be very acceptable. Among recent contributions to the Calliopean library we note the following:

A complete set of Appleton's Encyclopedia, with Annuals, Maj. G. W. Martin, Martin, Tenn.

The price of Encyclopedia Britannica in books selected by the Society, Judge E. S. Hammond, Memphis, Tenn.

Fifty dollars worth of Standard Books, Dr. T. T. Eaton, Louisville, Ky.

Appleton's Encyclopedia of Biography, Mr. S. W. Meek, Nashville, Tenn.

Judge L. P. Cooper, Memphis, has recently added the Encyclopedia Britannica to the Apollonian library.

The University tenders thanks to—
Hon. Howell E. Jackson;
Hon. Isham G. Harris, U. S. S.;
Hon. John M. Taylor, M. C.;
And Spencer F. Baird, Sec'y Smithsonian Institute, for many valuable publications.

Any contribution addressed to "Library," S. W. B. University, Jackson, Tenn., will be properly acknowledged and appropriated.

BOARDING HALL.

At its recent session the Board of Trustees determined to erect at once, on the campus, a commodious hall for furnishing cheap board to students. The matter is in the hands of a committee of which Dr. J. R. Graves is chairman. The Hall will be built.

We call attention to the statement of Mr. A. L. Davis on page
31. Rooms for fifteen or twenty students will certainly be ready by the opening of next session. For particulars address the Chairman of the Faculty.

CALLIOPEAN HALL.

The Calliopean Literary Society has determined to erect a handsome hall on the University grounds, which will be used as a place for its meetings, library, reading room, etc. Nearly $1500 is subscribed for this purpose, and the canvass for funds has not begun. The following committee has the matter in charge: J. W. N. Burkett, chairman; A. P. Bourland, Frank DeCourcey, Jackson, Tenn.; S. W. Meek, Nashville, Tenn.; E. F. Friedel, Texarkana, Ark.; B. R. Hall, Martin, Tenn., and W. D. Powell, Eurekaton, Tenn.

FINANCIAL AGENT.

During the ensuing year Rev. Frank DeCourcey will again be in the field in the interest of the University. The Board of Trustees, Faculty and friends of the University bespeak for him the earnest co-operation of all who are concerned about the higher Christian education of our country.

ORGANIZATION.

UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL.

In this school the course of study is pursued on the same general principles adopted in the best High Schools of our cities, and students are prepared specially for the Mathematical, Classical and Scientific Departments of the University. The same course of study is required of all, and great importance is attached to thoroughness, as a mistake here is too frequently destructive of a proper understanding and appreciation of the branches pursued in the University. A thorough mastery of the elementary principles taught in this department underlies success in other Departments, and subsequent study can rarely, if ever, atone for deficient preparation.

The classes in all the studies embraced in this Department are graded, and no pupil is allowed to advance from one grade to another without passing a satisfactory examination of all the studies preceding the grade he proposes to enter.

Students pursuing studies of this Department are under the same general principles of government as other students of the University. They receive instruction from the Principal of the High School, his Assistants, and in some instances, from Professors of the University.

Graduates of the City Schools of Jackson, and of other schools of like grade, will be admitted to the University High School without examination.

COURSE OF STUDY.

First Year: Physical Geography; American History; Latin Lessons; Science of Arithmetic; Intermediate Algebra; How Plants Behave, Gray; Knox-Heath's Parts of Speech; Selections from Riverside Literature Series and Modern Classics.

Second Year: Johonnot's How we Live; Tracy's Physiology; Packard's Briefer Zoology; Lamb's Tales from Shakspere; Vicar of Wakefield; Latin Lessons; Greek Lessons; How Plants Grow, Gray; Swinton's Studies in English Literature; Selections from Classic Authors; University Algebra.

DEPARTMENT OF LITERATURE AND SCIENCE.

The Department of Literature and Science comprehends the eight University Schools which are denominated as follows:

1, Latin; 2, Greek; 3, Mathematics; 4, Moral Science; 5, Natural Science; 6, English; 7, Modern Languages; 8, Elocution. These Schools are elective, and each independent of another; the Faculty, however, reserving the right to dictate a course of study for those students whose parents or guardians have not specially prescribed what branches shall be pursued.

There is no prescribed time for any one to complete the required course of study in any School of the University. This will greatly depend upon his previous preparation, his capacity and faithfulness as a student. The proficiency is shown by the character of the written examination as the only basis for promotion from one school to another.

Students graduating in any one of these Schools will be entitled to a certificate of graduation in that school.

To obtain admission to any one of the above Schools, the applicant must pass a satisfactory examination on the branches taught in the High School; and if he proposes to enter an advanced class in any School, he must pass a satisfactory examination on all studies previously pursued by that class.

No student can be admitted as a candidate for matriculation unless he presents satisfactory testimonials of good moral character; and, if he should come from another College or Academy, he must present a certificate of dismission from the institution last attended.

It is impossible to insist too earnestly upon the importance of prompt entrance at the opening of the session with the class on the studies of the term, and of continuance until the subjects are finished. The absence of a few days or weeks at the beginning of the session produces serious embarrassment to the student, and can rarely be made up during the term.

Young men from abroad, intending to become students, are expected to report to the Chairman of the Faculty within twenty-four hours after their arrival. Failing to do so without satisfactory reasons, they may be excluded altogether.

I.—THE SCHOOL OF LATIN.

Applicants for admission into this School must be thoroughly acquainted with the paradigms of declension and conjugation, familiar with the fundamental principles of Syntax, and must have read the Reader, Cæsar and Sallust, or their equivalents. They must also have pursued some elementary treatise on Latin Prose Composition.

Those unable to enter upon the text-books prescribed for the first year in the School of Latin, will take a preparatory course under the direction of the Professor in charge of this School.

The studies in the University course, for a period of three years, besides parallel reading, are as follows:

Junior.—Latin Grammar, Allen and Greenough; Cicero's Orationes; Livy, and Latin Prose Composition. Five hours a week.

Intermediate.—Horace; Cicero De Officiis and Latin Prose Composition. Five hours a week.

Senior.—Juvenal; Tacitus' Agricola and Annals; Latin Prose Composition, and History of Roman Literature. Five hours a week.

The English pronunciation is carefully taught and strictly followed in the class-room. The advanced classes are also taught to use the so-called Roman and Continental methods.

Candidates for graduation in this School, at their final examination, will be examined upon some author not read in the class-room.

II.—THE SCHOOL OF GREEK.

For admission into this School, applicants must be familiar with the principles of Greek Grammar, especially declension and conjugation, and must have passed entirely through some Greek Reader and two books of Xenophon's Anabasis. Where applicants are unable to enter upon the text-books prescribed for the first year, they will receive the special attention of the Professor in charge of this School.

The studies of this School embrace a period of three years, and are as follows:

Junior.—Goodwin's Greek Grammar; Homer's Odyssey; Greek Composition, and Memorabilia of Socrates. Five hours a week.

Intermediate.—Alcestis of Euripides; Herodotus; Demosthenes on the Crown, and Greek Prose Composition. Five hours a week.

Senior.—Plato's Apology and Crito; Antigone of Sophocles, and History of Greek Literature. Three hours a week.

Candidates for graduation in this School, at their final examination, will be examined upon some author not read in the classroom.

III. THE SCHOOL OF MATHEMATICS.

In order to enter this School the applicant must be thoroughly acquainted with the principles of the most advanced Arithmetics, including the Metric System, and must have completed Algebra. Where this is not the case, the Professor in charge of this School either gives or superintends instruction in the above named studies.

The studies of this School embrace a period of three years, and are as follows:

Junior.—Plane and Solid Geometry. In addition to the textbook, the student will be required to do sufficient work to apply the Principles of Geometry by the Algebraic solution of Geometrical problems. Five hours a week.

Intermediate.—Plane and Spherical Trigonometry and Surveying. Navigation optional. Surveying is thoroughly taught; the student being required to do enough field work to become perfectly familiar with the use of instruments, and, indeed, to be a practical surveyor. Five hours a week.

Senior.—Analytical Geometry, Differential and Integral Calculus, with practical work showing the application to Analytical Mechanics, etc. Five hours a week.

Throughout the course of instruction in this School lectures will be given on the history and Logic of Mathematics, and the student will be required to give lucid demonstrations of principles, close processes of reasoning, with a view to the acquisition of the highest discipline and training of the mental powers.

IV.—THE SCHOOL OF NATURAL SCIENCE.

The growing interest in this department of science calls loudly for the most extended research and investigation. The means and appliances for the successful prosecution of the studies in this School are enlarged annually.

This School embraces six different departments:

1. — GEOGRAPHY.

Text-Books: Maury's Physical Geography; Ritter's Geographical Studies.

II. — PHYSIOLOGY AND HYGIENE.

Text-Books: Johonnot's How We Live; Tracy's Physiology.

III. — BIOLOGY.

1) Zoology: Holder's Elements; Huxley's Anatomy of Invertebrate Animals, and Vertebrated Animals; Practical Work in Field with Net and Microscope; Exercises in Dissection; Lectures and Experimental Studies.

2) Botany: Bessey's Botany; Figuier's "The Vegetable World."

IV. — GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY.

1) Text-Books: LeConte's Compend of Geology; Winchell's Comparative Geology.

2) Text-Books: Collins' First Book in Mineralogy; Dana's Manual.

V. — PHYSICS AND ASTRONOMY.

1) Text-Books: Stewart's, Trowbridge's, or Baker's Physics.

2) Text-Books: Newcomb's Astronomy.

VI. — CHEMISTRY.

V.—SCHOOL OF ETHICS, PSYCHOLOGY AND LOGIC.

Students admitted into this School need no other preparation than a course of training equal to two years in the School of English.

The Faculties of the Mind: Perceiving, Attending, Remembering, Conceiving, Judging, Reasoning and Feeling are studied. The materials and means of Mental Development are carefully sought for, so each one may become a self-educator.

The course is arranged upon a broad basis made possible by the elaborate and extensive researches of recent years.

JUNIOR.—Sully's Outlines of Psychology; Bain's Senses and Intellect; Sidgwick's Fallacies; Lotze's Outlines.

SENIOR.—Haven's Metaphysics; Gregory's Ethics; Gregory's Political Economy; Valentine's Natural Theology.

Books of Reference: Bastian's The Brain as an Organ of Mind; Spencer's Principles of Psychology; Sully's Illusions; Wundt's Physiologische Psychologie; Volkmann's Lehrbuch der Psychologie, and others.

VI.—SCHOOL OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE.

SUB-JUNIOR.—Washington Irving's Sketch Book, Bracebridge Hall and Life of Washington (abridged edition); Walter Scott's Poems, Talisman and Ivanhoe; Longfellow's Poems; Kellogg's Rhetoric.

Parallel.—The Poems of Tennyson, Whittier and Bryant.

JUNIOR.—Hawthorne's Our Old Home; Ruskin's Modern Painters; Macaulay's Essays with his Life by Trevelyan; Minto's Manual of English Prose Literature.

Parallel: Thomas Carlyle, the Man and his Works.

Summer Reading: Wordsworth's Poems; Select Comedies of Shakspere (Hudson).

INTERMEDIATE.—Shakspere's Lear, Henry V., Hamlet and Tempest (Rolfe's edition); Spencer's Faerie Queene; Milton's Paradise Lost.

Parallel: Milton's Life and Prose Works; Bacon's Essays and Advancement of Learning; Carlyle's Life of Cromwell.

Summer Reading: Edward III. (Warburton); The Poems of Chaucer and Langland.

SENIOR.—Morris's Specimens of Early English; Zupitza's
Elene; Sweet's Alfred's Orosius; Baskerville's Andreas; Siever's Grammar of Old English; Ten Brink's Early English Literature.

HISTORY.

_JUNIOR._—Gilman's History of the American People; American Statesmen (Selections); American Commonwealths (Selections); A Study of Constitutional Documents.

_SENIOR._—Green's History of the English People; Hallam's Constitutional History; Taine's History of English Literature; Parallel Readings in Hume, Macaulay and Scott; Biographical Studies.

LANGUAGE.

_JUNIOR._—Abbott's Shakespearian Grammar, with Macbeth (Clark and Wright).

_SENIOR._—Whitney's Life and Growth of Language; Lectures; Skeat's Specimens of English Literature.

Each student is thoroughly trained in all the forms of verbal composition, writing many original Sketches, Descriptions and Essays. Each year every student is required to write a complete volume upon some fitting subject. Special attention is paid to spoken discourse also.

VII.—SCHOOL OF MODERN LANGUAGES.

GERMAN.

_JUNIOR._—Dreyspring's Cumulative Method; Grimm's Hausmaerchen (Otis); Hauff's Das Kalte Herz; Schiller's Ballads; Uhland's Ballads; and Storme's Immensee.

_SENIOR._—Heine: Selections from Harzreise and Reisebilder; Schiller's Jungfrau von Orleans, Wilhelm Tell and Wallenstein; Goethe's Egmont and Faust, Part I.; Lessing's Nathan der Weise; Brandt's German Grammar.

FRENCH.

_JUNIOR._—Dreyspring's Cumulative Method; Æsop's and La Fontaine's Fables; Lacombe's Petite Histoire du Peuple Francais; Voltaire's Charles XII.; Whitney's Practical Grammar, Part I.

_SENIOR._—Racine's Esther and Andromaque; Corneille's Le Cid and Cinna; Moliere's L'Avare and Le Tartuffe; La France: Son Peuple et ses Institutions; Le Romantisme Francais; Tableaux de la Revolution Francaise; Whitney's Grammar, completed.

Parallel reading will be arranged for the entire School.
VIII.—SCHOOL OF ELOCUTION AND ORATORY.

FIRST YEAR.

Fall Term.—1. Introductory Lecture on the Art of Expression. 2. Respiration for the development of the lungs and economy of breath. 3. Larynx Drills for strength and flexibility of vocal organs. 4. Orthoepy, for correctness of enunciation and distinct articulation. 5. Physical culture—calisthenics and vitalizing for developing and acquiring complete control of the muscular force. 6. Action—Position of feet, gesture, and attitude of body, for ease and grace of bearing. 7. Vocal Culture—for purity, strength and flexibility of voice. 8. Two elements of Vocal Expression: (I.) Quality—Pure Tone, Oratorical. Oral, Aspirate, Guttural, Pectoral, Nasal, and Falsetto. (II.) Force—Form, Degree and Stress. 9. Study, analysis and practice of selections from "Choice Readings."

Spring Term.—Vocal Culture—for compass, flexibility and attenuation of voice. 2. Completion of the elements of Vocal Expression: (III.) Time—Quantity, Pauses and movement. (IV.) Pitch—(a) Degree; (b) Changes—concretes, intervals and discrete; (c) Melody—current and cadence. 3. Application of the principles in Rhythmus, Emphasis and Grouping. 2. Devitalizing exercises for acquiring pliability and elasticity of muscular force. 5. Gesture—Study of Gesture expressive of states of mind, soul or body. 6. Study of Gesture expressive of objects, real or ideal. 7. Close analysis of Shakespearian extracts, representing all the different emotions and passions.

The Second Year will carry forward the work begun in the First Year. The full program will be announced in due time.

DEGREES.

The regular degrees conferred by the University are as follows:

1. The Degree of Master of Arts is conferred on students who graduate in all the Seven Schools of the Department of Literature and Science.

2. The Degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred on those who graduate in the Schools of Latin, Mathematics, Natural Science, Moral Science, English, and German and French, or their equivalents.

3. The Degree of Bachelor of Philosophy is conferred on those who graduate in the Schools of Mathematics, Natural Science, Moral Science, English, and German and French.

Besides these regular Degrees, a student who pursues the course of study of any school, and passes a satisfactory examination, is entitled to a degree of Graduate in that School.

The above Degrees are not bestowed as compliments, but are conferred by the Trustees upon the recommendation and endorsement of the Faculty, for having successfully completed certain studies; and diplomas are delivered as an evidence of such award.

No Degree will be conferred on any student of the University, unless he shall have sustained a good moral character, and settled all College bills.

HONORS.

All students attaining a grade of 90 are enrolled as Proficients; these reaching 95 as Distinguished Proficients. Every incentive for earnest, thorough work is offered to the students.

PRIZES.

I.—THE STRICKLAND GOLD MEDAL.

This medal was established by Charles H. Strickland, D. D., Nashville, Tenn., and is given to the graduate that delivers the best oration.

Thomas Wylie Young, Covington, Tenn., was the winner in 1887.

II.—THE JOSEPH H. EATON MEDAL FOR ELOCUTION.

This medal was founded by T. T. Eaton, LL. D., Louisville, Ky., in honor of his father, the founder of Union University, and for many years its honored President. It is awarded for the highest proficiency in Elocution and Oratory.

III.—THE J. R. GRAVES AWARD.

J. R. Graves, LL. D., Memphis, Tenn., annually awards a prize for the best essay written by some member of the Society of Religious Inquiry upon some assigned topic. This year the subject was "The Church;" the winner W. B. Clifton, of Mason, Tenn.

IV.—THE SAM W. MEEK MEDAL.

This was established by Mr. Sam’l W. Meek, Nashville, Tenn., and is awarded to the representative of the Calliopean Literary Society that shall make the best effort in the Annual Celebration of that society.

V.—THE APOLLONIAN MEDALS.

These are awarded by the Apollonian Literary Society; one for the highest proficiency in Oratory, the other for the greatest improvement during the session. This year they were won respectively by Mr. B. B. Lindsey, Jackson, Tenn., and Mr. J. F. Sproles, Ripley, Tenn.

VI.—THE CALLIOPEAN MEDALS.

The Calliopean Literary Society awards a medal to each member taking a University Degree. This year the Society honored T. W. Young, Covington, Tenn., M. A. Cathcart, Dowelltown, Tenn., J. W. Anderson, Cotton Plant, Ark.

RELIGIOUS CULTURE OF STUDENTS.

In connection with the discipline of the intellect, it is the purpose of the University to inculcate a pure morality and the great fundamental truths and doctrines of the Christian religion. To this end, the public exercises of each day are opened with the reading of the Scriptures, singing and prayer; and on the Sabbath the students of the University are required to attend the public worship of God in some of the churches of Jackson. All are earnestly urged to attend regularly some Sabbath-school of their own choice in the city. Lectures are delivered in the University Chapel at stated times, by the members of the Faculty and ministers of the several denominations in Jackson, on subjects touching the great moral duties of man.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two Literary Societies connected with the University: "Calliopean" and "Apollonian." These Societies have halls sufficiently large for all practical purposes, in which they hold weekly meetings for improvement in debate, declamation, composition and criticism, and for the study of parliamentary law. The students of the University are encouraged to connect themselves with one or the other of these Societies, and thus early in life learn to argue connectedly upon any subject brought to their attention, and acquire the power of thinking and reasoning without embarrassment.

Each Society has its own library and furniture adapted to its wants. The University library is also open to all the students on stated days.

THE J. R. GRAVES SOCIETY OF RELIGIOUS INQUIRY.

The object of this society is set forth in its name. Its founder has been instrumental in furnishing its hall in a most elegant style. The members are mainly those who are preparing for the Christian ministry; they meet weekly and engage in exercises that prepare them for their great work.

The Society needs additions to its library, and will gladly receive donations. From Dr. C. H. Strickland and others it has already received valuable gifts.

BENEFICIARIES.

Students of all denominations having the Gospel Ministry in view, when properly recommended by their churches, and having license from the same to preach the Gospel; also the sons of Ministers deriving their entire support from the active work of the ministry and unable to pay the regular fees, are admitted to the University free of charge for tuition. Assistance in paying for their board has been rendered to young men in the past, and like aid, in certain instances, will be extended to young men having the ministry in view, and approved by the Board of Ministerial Education located at Jackson. Those desiring such assistance should correspond with the Chairman of the Faculty.

The Matriculation and Incidental Fees are required alike from all.

LOCATION.

The South-western Baptist University is located at Jackson, Tenn., at the crossing of the Mobile & Ohio and the Illinois Central railroads. Jackson is not surpassed by any inland city in the Southwest for the healthfulness of its climate, the public spirit and enterprise of its citizens, and the cultivation and refinement of its society. Young gentlemen connected with the University here find a cordial welcome to the first families of the city, insomuch that the longings for home are soon forgotten by reason of the generous hospitality extended to them.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Students in the higher Departments of the University are expected to study in their rooms at their boarding-houses, and to report to their professors for recitations or lectures at appointed hours, according to the Schedule of Recitations, which is fixed at the beginning of the session. They are not permitted to visit the business portions of the city during study hours, nor to leave their rooms at night except by permission of some member of the Faculty.

A record of every recitation, or absence, excused or unexcused, of each student is kept, and from this record his standing is determined, and a circular containing the same is sent to his parent or guardian, showing his deportment, attendance or non-attendance upon recitation, lectures, and other college duties, together with any other remarks the case may require. Reports will be sent to parents or guardians in the middle and at the end of each session of five months.

In marking and grading, a scale of tens (or one hundred) is used for simplicity and convenience by the entire Faculty, and when the figures are translated into ordinary language they have about the following meaning: 100 is perfect; 90 excellent; 80 very good; 70 good; 60 barely passable; below 60 means that a student is so deficient or imperfect as to be put back, or as not to be allowed to go ahead to more advanced studies. Conduct is also graded on the scale of 100; every student on entering is credited with 100 as perfect, and all deductions from this ideal standard are caused by demerits. Each unexcused absence from University duty counts at least two demerits, and misconduct is demerited according to its aggravation.

Students are required to have four and only four recitations each day, unless otherwise allowed by the Faculty for such reasons as may seem proper. After having entered a class, they are required to perform such duties as are assigned to other members of the class; and in no instance are they permitted to leave their class or enter others without having first obtained permission from the Faculty.

During study hours students are not permitted to visit the business portions of the city, nor be found upon the streets, in the shops, stores or other places, except on urgent business, permission for which having been first obtained from some member of the Faculty. They are not allowed to be on the campus during study hours, nor about the buildings, but are required to withdraw to their homes, or go to the library or reading room for study, when not in the recitation rooms.

Students entering at any time are expected to continue until the close of the session, and no deduction of tuition fees will be allowed for voluntary withdrawal.

In cases of withdrawals, the written authority of parents and guardians will be required. They are urged not to encourage nor permit their sons or wards to withdraw except in extreme cases.

LIBRARY.

The University is furnished with a Library, which, including the Libraries of the two Literary Societies, numbers about three thousand volumes.

DISCIPLINE.

The discipline is mild but firm, and is directed to the establishment of correct habits and an elevated character. The University does not propose to become a reformatory institution for the eradication of vicious habits. If a student cannot be influenced by measures founded on principles of morality and gentlemanly propriety, or is habitually inattentive to the discharge of his duties, he will not be a desirable member of the University, and will be required to withdraw.

EXAMINATIONS.

Two regular examinations are held; the first at the close of the first term, ending in January, and the other at the close of the collegiate year in June. The examinations are both oral and written, and together with the record of the recitation, serve to make up the standing of the students for the entire year. Any student failing to stand an examination with his class will not be allowed to compete for any prize or honor of the University, nor be permitted to advance to the next class.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.
There are two terms in each year. The first term for 1887–88 begins the first Monday in September, and continues twenty weeks; the second term begins on Monday after the close of the first term, and continues twenty weeks. Commencement day occurs on the first Thursday in June.

The regular vacation continues from the first Thursday in June to the opening of the Fall term.

EXPENSES.

UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL.

Tuition per Term of twenty weeks:
First Division ........................................... $18 00
Second Division ........................................ 20 00
Incidental Fee .......................................... 1 50

DEPARTMENT OF LITERATURE AND SCIENCE.
First year, per term of twenty weeks ................ $25 00
Second and third year ............................... 30 00
Incidental Fee .......................................... 3 00

ELOCUTION.
Course of Class Lessons, five per week, for term of six weeks, in class of twenty ....................... $ 6 00
Same in classes of ten ............................... 7 50
Same in classes less than ten ......................... 10 00
Private Lessons, each ................................ 1 00

All students of every character pay but once $1.00 each, which is appropriated for current expenses.

All bills for tuition must be settled in advance, and no student will be permitted to recite before matriculating. No portion of the tuition fee will be returned on account of dismission or withdrawal for any reason, and no deduction will be made for absence arising from sickness, unless the sickness be protracted beyond one month.

Parents and guardians are earnestly requested not to furnish their sons or wards with unnecessary pocket change. All that is needed is just enough to pay for travelling expenses, tuition bill, the necessary text-books, and board for one month in advance. More than sufficient for the above wants may form, not only habits of extravagance, but may result in utter ruin to the young man and others besides. Patrons of the University should deposit with some member of the Faculty all sums of money necessary to meet the wants of their sons or wards, and forbid the opening of accounts with merchants and others. A lavish expenditure of money is wholly incompatible with good, faithful study.

It is deemed very important for parents and guardians to understand that, not including clothing and railroad fares the entire expenses of a student here for the Collegiate year of ten school months should fall within one hundred and eighty-five dollars. If a student spends more than that amount, he should be called strictly to account. Indeed, the expenses of several of our best students have not exceeded one hundred and fifty dollars for the year. There is probably no institution in our country where equal advantages can be secured at less cost.

The expenditures for clothing, books and pocket money will depend upon the character of the student and the disposition of the parent or guardian. It is desired that parents and guardians should bear in mind that too liberal an allowance of money exposes the student to temptation, while it in no wise contributes to his standing in his classes, his happiness or respectability.

BOARDING.

Boarding can be had in private families at $10.00 to $13.00 per month, everything furnished except washing, which is twenty-five cents per week.

To show how cheap a student may board, we append the following: "Expenses for school year, beginning September, 1886, and ending June, 1887:

Furnishing room ............................................. $ 8 70
Meals .......................................................... 34 70
Washing ....................................................... 6 30
Coal ............................................................ 3 15

Carried forward ............................................. $52 85
Catalogue Southwestern Baptist University.

Brought forward........................... $52.85
Coal Oil........................................ 5.25
Other necessaries............................ 60

Total......................................... $58.70
Deduct Furnishing........................... 8.70

Actual cost of Board......................... $50.00
Average cost per scholastic month........ $5.00

This statement is made by one of the best students of the University, Mr. A. L. Davis, Andrew Chapel, Tenn.

Others can do likewise. Education is certainly within the reach of all.

Students are allowed to board only in such families as are recognized by the Faculty as suitable for boarding the students of the University. Whenever a change is proposed in the boarding-house, the student is required to notify the Faculty and obtain consent before making the change.

Persons intending to send their sons or wards are requested to correspond with the Chairman of the Faculty, with a view of securing suitable homes.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF GOVERNMENT.

Every member of this Institution is expected to conduct himself in all his relations with gentlemanly propriety, and in such a way as will best secure the object for which it was organized—the highest moral and intellectual training of those who enter it.

Each student, before matriculating, is furnished with a copy of the laws of the University, which he is required to sign, and comes under the obligation of the following Pledge:

"I hereby give my personal Pledge of Honor that so long as I am a member of the Southwestern Baptist University, I will be subject to all the Principles and Regulations that are now in force, or may hereafter be adopted by the Faculty for the government of the Institution."

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

The Eighth Annual Session of the Memphis Hospital Medical College, Medical Department, Southwestern Baptist University, will begin on the first Monday in October, and continue until March 1st, 1888.

In announcing the approaching session the faculty are gratified to report for the College a higher degree of prosperity in the year just passed than ever before attained. It is believed that at no previous time in its history have such advantages been afforded for medical instruction, nor has there ever been so large attendance.

The equipment of the College is complete in all its details, and the advantages for clinical instruction is no where surpassed.

THE CLINICAL ADVANTAGES

Of this College are excellent. The supply of material, congregated within the wards of the City Hospital, is gathered not only from Memphis, but also from the States of Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas and Alabama. The poor and improvident of these States naturally seek this city, since it is the nearest point where hospital accommodations can be procured. With such a field it is already perceived that ample facilities may be obtained for clinical instruction. Five clinics will be held each week by members of the faculty.

CLINICS.

Surgical—Prof. Rogers.

Medical—Prof. Willett.

Eye, Ear and Throat—Prof. Sinclair.

Gynaecological—Prof Maury.

Diseases of the Rectum—Prof. Henning.

DAILY EXAMINATIONS

will be held by each Professor immediately before the regular lectures, upon the subjects previously lectured upon; and all the students, especially candidates for graduation, will be thoroughly catechized from day to day, and their proficiency noted. These examinations obviate the necessity for, and therefore the expense of the quiz, which is common in many of the medical schools.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION.

1. The candidate must be of good moral character, and have attained the age of twenty one years.

2. He must have attended two full courses of lectures, the latter of which shall have been in this Institution. He must also have practiced dissection during at least one session.

3. Each candidate must deposit with the Dean of the Faculty, on or before the 15th of February of the year of graduation, an original thesis upon some medical subject, together with the graduating fee, the latter of which will be returned in case of rejection.

4. He must pass a satisfactory examination upon all of the branches taught in this College.

5. The degree will not be conferred upon any candidate who absents himself from the Commencement without consent of the Faculty.

6. No examination for graduation will be granted in advance of the time fixed for examining the entire class, without the unanimous consent of the Faculty.

EXPENSES OF THE SCHOOL.

Dissecting Material ........................................ Free
Matriculation Fee (paid first year only) ................. $ 5 00
Demonstrator’s Ticket ...................................... 10 00
Professor’s Ticket (full course) ......................... 50 00
Graduation Fee .............................................. 30 00

Students may, after matriculating, attend any one or more of the courses of Lectures, by paying $10 for each ticket. Graduates of this and other recognized Medical Colleges are required to matriculate only.

Students desiring information as to the Medical Department will address Prof. W. B. Rogers, Dean of the Faculty, No. 297 Main street, Memphis, Tenn.

The next Session at Jackson will begin Monday, September 5th, 1887.
